How to improve patient engagement in decision-making processes

Jo Watson BASoc.Sc, MPH
Deputy Chair of the PBAC
Chair of the Health Technology Assessment Consumer Consultative Committee,
Deputy Chair of the Consumers Health Forum

Patient engagement in PBAC processes

PBAC Agenda publicly available Week 3 of a 17-week cycle

31 main agenda items for July 2024

Consumer Comments

Open between week 3 – 11

Online "Citizen Space" to enable consumers to share their perspectives on technologies under consideration

There is a strong signal to engage consumers earlier and in a more meaningful way and engagement is irrespective of diversity, background, age, disability, location or personal circumstance

PBAC sub-committee consideration of evidence

Summary of consumer comments shared with sponsor Week 15

PBAC Committee Week 17

19 Members, including 2 consumer nominees.

The PBAC is an independent expert body appointed by the Australian Government to consider the medical condition, its clinical effectiveness, safety and cost-effectiveness compared with other treatments

Advancing consumer evidence and engagement

INFORM

considerations.